Chapter 362: The Titles of Sung Jin-Woo

As Sung Jin-Woo continued his infinite journey of creation, restoration, and guardianship of the multiverse, his divine nature became unparalleled. The beings across realms, mortal and divine, revered him with countless titles that spoke of his boundless power and influence.

The Divine Titles of Sung Jin-Woo

The multiverse recognized Sung Jin-Woo through numerous titles, each representing an aspect of his might, wisdom, and divinity. Among these titles, the most prominent were:

1. God of Creation and Abundance: Representing his infinite ability to create worlds, beings, and systems that thrive in harmony and prosperity.

2. God of Shadows (Shadow God): Honoring his dominion over darkness, shadows, and the infinite power that lies within.

3. God of Darkness: The master of primordial darkness, commanding its raw, chaotic energy with unmatched precision.

4. God of Lights: The source of divine light that illuminates the multiverse, bringing hope and guidance.

5. God of Life: Acknowledging his power to grant life to the lifeless and nurture existence.

6. God of Death: Ruler over the cycle of life and death, ensuring balance and justice in the realms.

7. God of Destruction: The ultimate force capable of eradicating evil, chaos, and corruption when necessary.

8. God of Humanoid Beings: Protector and creator of all humanoid races across the multiverse.

9. God of All Elements: Mastery over every elemental force, from fire and water to space and time itself.

10. God of Angels: Creator and sovereign of angelic beings, spreading light and order across the multiverse.

11. God of Resurrection: Resurrecting the fallen and restoring realms, embodying hope and renewal.

12. God of Clones: His unparalleled ability to create clones with his divine power, each serving specific purposes across the multiverse.

13. God of Inner Worlds' Creators: Representing his gift of granting beings the power to create and sustain their own inner worlds.

Additional Titles

The list of Sung Jin-Woo's titles seemed endless, with mortals and divine beings alike bestowing new honorifics as they witnessed his miracles:

14. God of Time and Space: For his dominion over temporal and spatial laws.

15. God of Eternity: His existence, infinite and unchanging, beyond the grasp of time.

16. God of Balance: Ensuring the harmony between life, death, creation, and destruction.

17. God of Realms: Sovereign of countless realms, from the Absolute Realm Universe to the True Absolute One Domain.

18. God of Purification: Cleansing corrupted mana, realms, and souls.

19. God of Rebirth: Enabling civilizations and individuals to start anew after ruin.

20. God of Divine Armies: Commander of centillions of angels, heavenly soldiers, and shadow lords.

Multiverse-Wide Reverence

Across the multiverse, these titles were inscribed in holy texts, chanted in prayers, and engraved on monuments. His name became synonymous with hope, power, and protection. To speak his titles was to invoke the essence of existence itself.

Sung Jin-Woo, from his throne in the True Absolute One Domain, heard these praises but remained steadfast in his purpose. Titles were merely reflections of his deeds, and he had much more to accomplish.
